For the purpose of the Articles, a Member entitled to vote shall be deemed to be personally present if represented by its nominated representative (or its alternate) or a proxy. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a minimum of two Members are present at the meeting (provided they are not each represented by the same nominated representative or proxy).

31. Subject to the requirement in Article 30 requiring a minimum of two Members to be present at the meeting, a general meeting may validly continue if a quorum ceases to be present during the meeting.
32. The Chairman (if any) (or, in his absence, such other Board Director (if any) as the Board may nominate) shall preside as chairman at every general meeting, but if there be no such Chairman or Board Director, or if at any meeting the Chairman or any such Board Director shall not be present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, or shall be unwilling to preside, the Members present and entitled to vote shall choose any Board Director, or if no such Board Director be present, or if all the Board Directors present decline to take the chair, the nominated representative of some Full Member who shall be present, to preside.
33. General meetings may be dissolved, adjourned or rescheduled in any of the following ways:
 - 33.1 if, within thirty (30) minutes from the time appointed for the holding of a general meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened at the request of the Members under Article 28, shall be dissolved. In any other case, the chairman shall either adjourn the meeting to the same day in the next week (or, in the event that such day is not a Business Day, the next Business Day), at the same time and place, or specify that the meeting such be adjourned to such day and at such time and place as the Board shall later determine;
 - 33.2 the chairman may adjourn the meeting from time to time, and from place to place in the following circumstances:
 - 33.2.1 with the consent of Members entitled to vote at the meeting, by way of ordinary resolution;
 - 33.2.2 if, in the chairman's opinion, it is not practical to get the consent of the meeting but it appears necessary to adjourn to facilitate the business of the meeting; or
 - 33.2.3 without the consent of the meeting, if it is necessary to re-establish order or to facilitate conduct of the meeting. The adjournment should only be for such period as might be reasonably necessary to restore order; or
 - 33.3 the chairman may, and shall if so directed by the Board, change the date, time and/or place of a general meeting at any time between notice of the meeting being given and the scheduled commencement of the general meeting if, in his or the Board's reasonable opinion, an event has occurred which means that it would not be practicable for the meeting to take place at the date, time and/or place specified in the notice. If the chairman is unavailable or uncontactable following the occurrence of such event, any Board Director or any member of the Executive may agree to postpone a general meeting. Any meeting postponed in accordance with this Article 33.3, shall be rescheduled. Notice of any rescheduling pursuant to this Article shall be given to all Members entitled to it as soon as possible, and in any event by no later than the scheduled commencement of the general meeting, and for this purpose notice may, subject to the terms of the Act, be by electronic means or via the LMA Website.

34. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned or rescheduled meeting other than business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment or rescheduling took place. If a meeting is adjourned or rescheduled for thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned or rescheduled meeting shall be given in the same manner as in the case of an original meeting. Save as in this Article 34 and Article 33.3, no Member shall be entitled to any notice of adjournment or rescheduling, or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned or rescheduled meeting.
35. Where a resolution is passed at an adjourned meeting, the resolution is for all purposes to be treated as having been passed on the date on which it was in fact passed, and is not to be deemed passed on any earlier date.
36. At any general meeting, save as provided by Article 62, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is, before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands, demanded by:

 - 36.2 by at least five Members personally present and entitled to vote on the business to be transacted; or
 - 36.3 a number of Members personally present and entitled to vote on the business to be transacted and representing at least one tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at the meeting.

 - 37.2 an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution.

38. Save as provided by Article 62, the demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:
 - 38.1 the poll has not yet been taken and the chairman consents to the withdrawal; or
 - 38.2 the chairman, aware that a poll would not make any difference to the result of the vote on a show of hands, informs the meeting of that fact and the Members who requested it subsequently consent to the withdrawal.
39. Subject to the provisions of the Articles, if a poll is demanded in the manner aforesaid, it shall be taken at such time and place, and in such manner, as the chairman of the meeting shall direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
40. No poll shall be demanded on the election of a chairman of a meeting, or on any question of adjournment.
41. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

42. Subject as hereinafter provided, every Full Member shall have one vote (whether on a show of hands or on a poll) and each Full Member may vote by its nominated representative (or its alternate) or by a proxy in accordance with Article 45.

Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
45. Votes may be given (whether on a show of hands or on a poll) either by the Member's nominated representative (or its alternate) or by proxy. A nominated representative may appoint up to two proxies to attend, speak and vote on behalf of a Full Member instead of him, but in the event of both proxies attending the meeting, only the first appointed shall have the right to speak and vote. The appointment of a proxy does not prohibit the nominated representative (or its alternate) from attending or voting at the meeting, but if the nominated representative (or its alternate) does attend and vote in person, any votes tendered by the proxy must be rejected.
46. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointing nominated representative.
47. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the Office, by electronic means or at such other place within the United Kingdom as may be specified in the notice convening the relevant meeting:

 - 47.2 in the case of a poll taken more than forty-eight (48) hours after it was demanded, not less than twenty-four (24) hours (excluding any part of a day that is not a Business Day) before the time appointed for taking of the poll; or
 - 47.3 in the case of a poll taken less than forty-eight (48) hours after it was demanded, before the time appointed for taking of the poll,and, in default, the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
48. No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve (12) months from the date of its execution.

The Board may exercise all the powers of the Association to borrow money, and to mortgage or charge its undertaking and property, or any part thereof, and to issue bonds, debentures, debenture stock or other securities, whether outright or as security for any debt or obligation of the Association.
54. The Board Directors for the time being may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body; provided always that if the Board Directors shall at any time be less than the minimum number prescribed by or in accordance with the Articles, it shall be lawful for them to act as the Board for the purpose of admitting persons to membership of the Association, filling up vacancies in their body, or of summoning a general meeting, but not for any other purpose.
55. A Board Director shall not vote on any resolution concerning a matter in which he has, directly or indirectly, an interest or duty which is material and which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Association, save that a Board Director shall not be deemed to have such an interest or duty if his interest therein arises solely by virtue of his being a member, officer or nominated representative of a body, provided that he does not hold (other than in a nominee capacity) more than 1% of the capital of such body, and provided also that such Board Director may, notwithstanding his material interest, vote where:
 - (a) the resolution relates to the giving to him of a guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of money lent to, or an obligation incurred by him for the benefit of, the Association;
 - (b) the resolution relates to the giving to a third party of a guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of an obligation of the Association for which the Board Director has assumed responsibility in whole or part and whether alone or jointly with others under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security; or
 - (c) the resolution relates in any way to a retirement benefit scheme which has been approved, or is conditional upon approval, by the Board or HMRC for taxation purposes.
56. The Board Directors may be repaid by the Association for any travelling, hotel or other expenses reasonably and properly incurred by them in attending to any matter in connection with the Association.

deem necessary, expedient or convenient for the proper conduct and management of the Association, and for the purposes of prescribing both classes and conditions of membership and, in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, they may by such Byelaws regulate:

- 59. The Board Directors to retire pursuant to Article 58 (the "Retiring Directors" and each a "Retiring Director") shall be first (or only, as the case may be), Interim Directors, and second (if required), those who have been longest in office since their last election or appointment. As between Board Directors who have been on the board for an equal amount of time, the Board Directors to retire shall be selected by lot by the Executive. Subject to Article 61, a Retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election and may if willing to act be reappointed.
- 60. The resolution to approve the list of Retiring Directors (the "Retiring Director Resolution") shall take place at the meeting of the Board at which any notices pertaining to the AGM are approved (the "Pre-AGM Board Meeting"). The list of Retiring Directors may not be amended once approved by the Board, notwithstanding any changes to the composition of the Board after the passing of the Retiring Director Resolution and prior to the AGM.

61. The Association may, at each AGM, fill each office vacated by a Board Director by electing a person thereto in accordance with the provisions of Article 62. Candidates for election to the Board may include:

61.1 any Retiring Director (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall include any Interim Director) who has confirmed a wish to be appointed/re-appointed as a Board Director;

61.2 any other person recommended for election by the Board at the Pre-AGM Board Meeting, who has subsequently provided confirmation in writing of his willingness to be elected no later than fourteen (14) Clear Days before the day appointed for the AGM; and

61.3 any candidates proposed for election in accordance with Article 63,

(the "Eligible Candidates" and each an "Eligible Candidate") provided that in all cases, no person other than a nominated representative of a Full Member for the time being, shall be so recommended or proposed for election.

62. At any AGM, after taking into account the number of Board Directors remaining on the Board (excluding any who are required to retire pursuant to Articles 58), the process for electing Board Directors shall then be as follows:

62.1 the election of candidates to the Board for any available places shall be put to a vote at that meeting and such vote shall be determined by a poll;

62.2 on any poll required under this Article 62 (or any second or subsequent poll) only those candidates who receive a minimum of 20% of the votes cast on the resolution to elect them (the "20% Threshold") shall be eligible for election to the Board (the "Qualifying Candidates") (unless 20% is not a whole number, in which case the required number of votes will be rounded down to the nearest whole number);

62.3 of the Qualifying Candidates who are Non-Bank Investor Representatives ("Qualifying Non-Bank Investor Representatives"), those Qualifying Non-Bank Investor Representatives receiving the most votes shall be the first elected (ranking in priority for appointment in order of the number of votes cast in their favour) so that (taking into account any Board Directors who are also Non-Bank Investor Representatives and not retiring pursuant to Article 58) the number of Non-Bank Investor Representatives on the Board is four. In the event of a tied vote for the fourth appointment, the tied Qualifying Non-Bank Investor Representatives will be subject to a second poll. On the second poll (provided the relevant candidate has met the 20% Threshold) the candidate with the most votes shall be appointed to the Board. In the event of a further tie, lots shall be drawn. If there are already four Non-Bank Investor Representatives on the Board who are not retiring pursuant to Article 58, the procedure set out in Article 62.5 shall be followed;

62.4 if fewer Non-Bank Investor Representatives achieve the 20% Threshold (or there are fewer Non-Bank Investor Representatives standing for election) than there are available places for them, only those Non-Bank Investor Representatives achieving the 20% Threshold will be elected to the Board, with the remaining places being allocated to the remaining Qualifying Candidates in accordance with Article 62.5;

- 62.5 after any Qualifying Non-Bank Investor Representatives have been appointed to the Board in accordance with Articles 62.3 and 62.4, the remaining Qualifying Candidates shall rank in priority for election in order of the number of votes cast in their favour (regardless of whether they are Bank Member Representatives or Non-Bank Investor Representatives) with the Qualifying Candidate receiving the most votes being the first elected and the Qualifying Candidate receiving the next highest number of votes being the next elected and so on until all of the available places on the Board have been filled. In the event of a tied vote for the final appointment, the tied Qualifying Candidates will be subject to a second poll. On the second poll (provided the relevant candidate has met the 20% Threshold) the candidate with the most votes shall be elected to the Board. In the event of a further tie, lots shall be drawn.
63. No person other than a Retiring Director or a person recommended under Articles 61.2 above shall be eligible for election to the Board at any general meeting, unless within the prescribed time before the day appointed for the meeting there shall have been given to the Association notice in writing by any Member duly qualified to be present and vote at the meeting for which such notice is given, of its intention to propose such person for election, and also notice in writing, signed by the person to be proposed, of his willingness to be elected. The prescribed time mentioned above shall be such that, between the date when the notice is served, or deemed to be served, and the day appointed for the meeting, there shall not be less than fourteen (14) nor more than thirty five (35) intervening Clear Days. Not less than seven (7) Clear Days before the date appointed for holding a general meeting, notice shall be given to all who are entitled to receive notice of the meeting of any person (other than a Retiring Director seeking to be reappointed under Articles 61.1) in respect of whom valid notice under this Article 63 (or confirmation in writing under Article 61.2) has been duly given to the Association.
64. No person may be appointed as a Board Director in circumstances such that had he already been a Board Director, he would have been disqualified under the provisions of the Articles.
65. Subject as aforesaid, the Association may from time to time by ordinary resolution in general meeting increase or reduce the number of Board Directors and may make the appointments necessary for effecting any such increase.
66. In addition, and without prejudice to the provisions of section 168 of the Act, the Association may by ordinary resolution at a general meeting remove any Board Director before the expiration of his period of office, and may by an ordinary resolution appoint another person who is either recommended for election by the Board or proposed for election in accordance with Article 63 in his stead; but any person so appointed shall retain his office so long only as the Board Director in whose place he is appointed would have held the same if he had not been removed.
67. Subject to Article 51, the Board may from time to time and at any time appoint any nominated representative, for the time being, of a Full Member as a Board Director, either to fill a casual vacancy or by way of addition to the Board (an "Interim Director") provided that no Interim Director may be appointed at the Pre-AGM Board Meeting, or in the period between the Pre-AGM Board Meeting and the AGM. Any Interim Director so appointed shall retain office only until the next AGM, whereupon he or she shall retire in accordance with Article 58, but then be eligible for re-election in accordance with Article 62. No Interim Director shall be appointed by the Board in the period between the Pre-AGM Board Meeting and the next AGM.

68. The "LSTA Director" shall be a current director of the LSTA who is nominated and notified in writing to the Executive of the LMA by the LSTA to be a Board Director and who, following receipt of such nomination by the Association, is elected as a Board Director by the Board. If the LSTA fails to provide written notice to the Executive of the nomination of an individual to be LSTA Director, or if the individual so nominated fails to be elected as LSTA Director, then the position of LSTA Director shall stay vacant until a new nomination is received. The term of appointment of the LSTA Director is for one year, but the LSTA Director may be re-nominated and re-elected (and re-nomination will be deemed to have been given unless the Executive is otherwise notified). The LSTA Director shall have all the powers and duties of any other Board Director as provided in the Articles except that Articles 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63 and paragraphs (f) and (j) of Article 70 shall not apply to the LSTA Director. The LSTA Director shall be entitled to receive notice of and attend any meeting of the Board, but shall not be entitled to vote at such meeting.
69. The "APLMA Director" shall be a current director of the APLMA who is nominated and notified in writing to the Executive of the LMA by the APLMA to be a Board Director and who, following receipt of such nomination by the Association, is elected as a Board Director by the Board at the following meeting of the Board. If the APLMA fails to provide written notice to the Executive of the nomination of an individual to be APLMA Director, or if the individual so nominated fails to be elected as APLMA Director, then the position of APLMA Director shall stay vacant until a new nomination is received. The term of appointment of the APLMA Director is for one year, but the APLMA Director may be re-nominated and re-elected (and re-nomination will be deemed to have been given unless the Executive is otherwise notified). The APLMA Director shall have all the powers and duties of any other Board Director as provided in the Articles except that Articles 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63 and paragraphs (f) and (j) of Article 70 shall not apply to the APLMA Director. The APLMA Director shall be entitled to receive notice of and attend any meeting of the Board, but shall not be entitled to vote at such meeting.

 - (b) if he fails to attend two meetings of the Board in person between AGMs;

- (j) if the Full Member whose nominated representative he is, ceases to be a Full Member of the Association that is entitled to appoint a nominated representative pursuant to the Articles.

The Board may meet together for the dispatch of business, and may adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit, and may determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business. Unless otherwise determined, the quorum shall be five (5) Board Directors of which three (3) are present in person. No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Board unless a quorum is present at the time the meeting proceeds to business.
- 72. Questions arising at any meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes. The APLMA Director and the LSTA Director shall not be entitled to vote. For the avoidance of doubt, this Article shall not apply to votes relating specifically to appointments of Board Directors, which shall be expressly governed by Article 62.
- 73. A Board Director or a member of the Executive may, and on request of a Board Director, the Executive shall, at any time, summon a meeting of the Board by notice, such notice to be reasonable, served upon the Board Directors in such manner as the Board may from time to time prescribe.
- 74. 76. A meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all the authorities, powers and discretion exercisable by the Board pursuant to these Articles.
77. The Board may delegate any of its powers relating to financial matters to a finance committee (the "Finance Committee") consisting of one or more Board Directors, together with the Chief Executive, or in the event that there is no Chief Executive at a particular point in time, such other member of the Executive as the Board may select. Any delegation may be made subject to any conditions that the Board may impose, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of its own powers and may be revoked or altered. Subject to any such conditions, the proceedings of the Finance Committee shall be governed by the provisions of the Articles regulating the proceedings of directors so far as they are capable of applying. Where a provision of the Articles refers to the exercise of a power, authority or discretion by the Board and that power, authority or discretion has been delegated by the Board to the Finance Committee, the provision shall be construed as permitting the exercise of the power, authority or discretion by the Finance Committee.

80. The Board shall cause proper records to be kept of all written resolutions. The Board shall cause proper minutes to be made of all appointments to the Finance Committee, the proceedings of all meetings of the directors (including the names of all persons present thereat) and of the business transacted at such meetings. All such records and minutes shall be entered into books provided for the purpose. All such records must be kept for at least ten (10) years from the date of the meeting or resolution or decision (as appropriate). Any such record purporting to be signed by a Board Director shall be deemed to be evidence that the proceedings have complied with the relevant formalities

At the AGM in every year, the Board shall lay before the Members an income and expenditure account for the most recently completed accounting reference period of the Association (if any), together with a proper balance sheet made up as at the last day of such period. Every such balance sheet shall be accompanied by proper reports of the Board and the Auditors, and copies of such account, balance sheet and reports (all of which shall be framed in accordance with any statutory requirements for the time being in force) and of any other documents required by law to be annexed or attached thereto or to accompany the same shall be circulated to all persons entitled to receive notices of general meetings not later than the end of the period under the Act for filing accounts and reports with the registrar of companies or, if earlier, the date on which the Association actually delivers its accounts and reports to the registrar of companies and, in any event, no later than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the time of the AGM. The Auditors' report shall be open to inspection before the meeting.
