Message from the CEO

As an LMA member, you are part of a vibrant and committed community of organisations and individuals working in all areas of the Loan Market across EMEA.

The LMA is where the EMEA loan markets meet. By uniting market participants, we foster opportunities to improve the efficiency, liquidity and know-how required to drive better outcomes for lenders, investors and borrowers.

I encourage you to make the most of your membership benefits, and to share them with your colleagues.

Future Leaders in the Loan Markets

Be part of the community

The Junior Board is an opportunity to help shape what the LMA does for junior members and contribute to some of the main LMA initiatives.

Our cross-firm mentoring is in its pilot phase.

FutureLend events are designed to be a catalyst for career development, aligning with your organisational goals while shaping the future of our industry. We hold networking drinks several times during the year.

New to documentation? Our Documentation Hub has Guides to help.

Get Involved!

Join our working parties and committees

We encourage members to participate in the LMA's work by joining committees and working parties focused on relevant areas of the loan market.

Please note that in order to operate effectively, committees and working groups have defined criteria for participation and an optimum number of members.

LMA Board

Representatives from Full Member organisations are invited to apply to the Nomination Committee in May. Shortlisted candidates will stand for election at the AGM in September.

Committees and Working Groups

These reflect the core work of the LMA and include Documentation, the Middle East, Loan Operations, Sustainability, Technology, and Policy & Regulatory Affairs.
